TWO FAMILIES FIND A HOME

The solution of the problems which have confronted the two Spanish widows at the immigrant station and the officials in charge of them is now in the hands of James A. Rath and the women with their children will find a home in the Palama Settlement as soon as they can be moved. Arrangements are now being made at the settlement to receive them and house them with other Spanish families so that they will have some community interests.

"We have a cottage in which we can put them," said Mr. Rath this morning, "and they will be taken care of in such a fashion that they will not feel that they are objects of charity.
 We may take advantage of some of the offers that were made to Doctor Clark to give the children employment and, at any rate, we shall find work for them so that they will be self-supporting."

SETTLEMENT

 children and are something more than schools will give a musical entertainment. Slides will be thrown upon a screen showing housing conditions, good and evil. There will be swimming contests among the boys and gymnastic drills by the girls of the settlement.

A series of maps, based upon Board of Health statistics, are being prepared by Mr. Rath, which will show the close relation of tuberculosis to tenement conditions, and every device will be employed to interest the public in the need of reform in local economic conditions.

 ing of the streets between the rails

TWO NOTABLE Y. M. C. A. MEN IN HONOLULU FROM JAPAN

George Gleason, a prominent Y. M.
 C. A. worker stationed at Osaka, Japan, arrived in Honolulu this morning with his family in the Tenyo Maru and was being piloted through the association building before his baggage had come under the eye of the customs man. When he was last in Honolulu five years ago the Y. M.
 C. A. was not so well housed and the new quarters excited his surprise and enthusiasm.

"In our Y. M. C. A.," said he, "we have almost as many members as you have here, but I hope there is no worse association building in the world than ours at Osaka."

Mr. Gleason is a Harvard graduate and spent many years in student work in the east before going to Japan. He and his family, who are here on a vacation, will go on to the coast when the Siberia touches here February 17, and proceed to Mr. Gleason's home in Philadelphia.

During his visit here Secretary Super will give Mr. Gleason an opportunity to meet the local Y. M. C. A. workers and to take part in their activities. He will address the Newcomers Club at its weekly dinner in the association building Sunday evening and will be present at the meeting of the Young People's Society of Central Union church immediately after the dinner. He will also be present at the meeting of the Y. M. C. A. directors at their meeting on Monday.

 In the eyes of local Japanese interested in Y. M. C. A. work the arrival of the Tenyo Maru this morning marks a new epoch in their activities in Honolulu, for arriving in the steamer was R. Matsuzawa, a trained worker and a countryman of the highest caste who will assume the leadership in the Japanese Y. M. C. A. and will undertake the direction of a campaign for a larger membership and the erection of a building here.

Matsuzawa is thirty years old and a graduate of Kentucky University.
 He is said to have rare ability as a writer of Japanese and also speaks and writes English. His experience in Japan, China and Manchuria in the Y. M. C. A. field has been extensive and he comes to Honolulu heralded by an excellent record in the Orient.

Rev. Mr. Hori of the Nuanu Japanese church has charge of his entertainment for the present and the directors of the Japanese Y. M. C. A. are selecting headquarters and offices for him. In his preliminary work Mr.
 Matsuzawa will be assisted by General Secretary Paul Super.

THE MOHICAN'S UNREST.

The old Mohican, which has been Captain Harry Hyde's home for a long time, will have to leave her present snug berth at the Matson wharf, Nu-anu street, and go somewhere else.
 Just now she is being taken around to various places at the desire of the Pinafore actors, but where she will eventually settle has not yet been decided upon. She might go over to Rotten Row and be anchored over there with some of Captain Miller's Hakalau.

palatial yachts. The matter will be taken up in earnest after the comic opera "Pinafore" has been disposed of.

The Hawaii county loan fund commission is ready to advertise for bids for the construction of two sections of the belt road, estimated to cost $120,000. They are the sections between Waimaku, Honouliuli, Paukaa and Rotten Row and between Honouliuli and between Honouliuli and Honouliuli.
